25X1X6 ORIGIN [REDACTED]

- Through the efforts of CHIANG Lin (江林), leader of the Communist Women's Movement Committee, many educated women in Shanghai are enrolling in the Communist ranks to further strengthen the demands of the Communist for equal rights for women in Chinese society.
- The Fei-Kung Society, a Communist peripheral organization, has been ordered to utilize its facilities in recruiting local young men for Communist activities in northern Kiangsu. SHIH Ping-hu, chairman of this organization, has just moved his headquarters to the Pinhai Middle School, Nanyang Road, Shanghai.
- The "Youth Cultural Fellowship Society" was recently organized by LIN Han-ta (林漢達) for the purpose of infiltrating into the schools of Shanghai, making contact with leftist students, and spreading Communist Party doctrine.

- Financially, the local Communist group is in difficulty. With a view toward strengthening their financial standing, members of the group approached Goro-vasky [Paul S. Golovatsky], assistant manager [assistant chairman] of the Soviet Trade Union and negotiated through him a Soviet loan for the local Communists.

- CHEN Chia-kang (陳家康) and KO Pao-lin (戈寶林) carry on liaison with the Soviets in Shanghai. They are responsible for the exchange of intelligence, particularly concerning the present government-Communist peace talks.
